Program Talk

about drama and literature

Wednesday, August 8th, at 8 p.m. and again on Saturday, the 11th, at 3:30, Pacifica Players presents ON BAILE'S STRAND, a one-act play by William Butler Yeats, directed by Sean MacGregor of the Cahuenga Playhouse and starring Harold Innocent.

In the folk tales of Ireland's heroes Yeats found the materials for his dramas. The myth he uses in ON BAILE'S STRAND is his adaptation of one version of the death of the great warrior Cuchulain. Yeats believed that dramatic tragedy lay in the belated perception of the hero and his consequent self-destruction, which is always more passionate and glorious than what has come before. He termed this, his favorite play, "Greek tragedy, spoken with a Dublin accent."

But it is hardly the plot that dominates the drama; or rather it is that the dramatic structure is indistinguishable from the superb lyricism of the master poet of this century.

about public affairs

At 8 p.m. on the 6th, we commemorate Hiroshima Day with a reading of selections from "Children of the A-Bomb." As far as we know, this book has never been published in the United States, and our presentation is the first in this area.

Alex Quarmyne's informative series on Consumer Problems closes with "A Look at Federal Protective Services" at 8 p.m. on the 15th (rebroadcast at 4 p.m. on the 18th). After this final program, Alex leaves KPFF to complete his thesis for his Master's degree in Telecommunications at USC. We selfishly regret his going — his cheerful presence and productive ability will be missed — but we sincerely wish him continued success in his future work with the Ghana Broadcasting Service.

BROADCAST HOURS: 7 a.m. to 12:00 midnight, seven days a week. Dates of future broadcasts appear in BOLD FACE, caps and parentheses. Example: (DECEMBER 30). Dates of original broadcasts in light face and in parentheses. Example: (December 30). Numbers in parentheses following listing of musical selections refer to time, in minutes.
